

Ten Thousand Villages (TTV)

Ten Thousand Villages provides vital, fair income to Third World people by marketing their handicrafts and telling their stories in North America. TTV works with artisans who would otherwise be unemployed or underemployed, providing sustainable income through fair trade to help pay for food, education, health care and housing. TTV is a nonprofit program of Mennonite Central Committee (MCC)

Log onto: www.tenthousandvillages.com - homepage & catalog
Click: Find a Store at the top of the web page, Enter zip code & find a retail store near you

SERRV International

Enrich your life with beautiful handcrafted items and change the world at the same time. SERRV offers a variety of fairly traded handicrafts and foods from artisan and farmer partners in 35 countries. SERRV has worked on behalf of the world's artisans and farmers for 60 years

Log onto: <http://www.serrv.org>

Presbyterian Coffee Project

Enjoy fellowship and an excellent cup of coffee while reaching out to communities in the coffee growing world. Congregations and individuals that buy gourmet coffee, and also tea, chocolate, nuts and berries are supporting fair trade — ensuring that more of our "dollar" goes to the farmers who do the work. Fair trade complements Presbyterian mission with farmers around the world.

Log onto: www.pcusa.org/coffee - Presbyterian Coffee Project homepage
<http://interfaith.equalexchange.com> – Order coffee, tea, chocolate online
You'll also find a link to a pdf file for ordering by mail or by phone

Dsenyo aspires to empower women and artisans in Malawi, Africa. Their mission is to create jobs for women and artisans, promote fair trade practices, and support community development. Dsenyo also is committed to consumer education about the Fair Trade movement, ethical fashion (with an emphasis on sustainability), use of organic fabrics, and re-purposing/recycling in their production practices. As part of their mission, they donate a portion of their sales to community development projects in Malawi.

Log onto: <http://shop.dsenyo.com>

Welcome to the Enough for Everyone Global Marketplace where PC(USA) teams up with long-term partner A Greater Gift (formerly SERRV International) and mission-related alternative trade organizations to offer Presbyterians a variety of fair trade and responsibly produced products.

Make the Global Marketplace partners your primary source for gifts and products. Whether you are buying for yourself or for others, your purchases benefit not only the people who use and enjoy the items, but, perhaps most importantly, the people around the world who make them — and who often rely on our support to live their lives in dignity rather than poverty

All projects are endorsed by the Presbyterian Hunger Program's Enough for Everyone Project

For more information log onto: www.pcusa.org/enough

For additional brochures log onto www.donegalhungerprogram.org and click the link under the Global Marketplace section

We are a Jerusalem-based nonprofit Fair Trade organization that supports 20 Palestinian craft producers -- women's groups, artisan cooperatives and disabled people's organizations. By promoting traditional handicrafts locally and internationally, we support economic self-help efforts of those living in difficult conditions in the occupied West Bank and Gaza Strip, and the Palestinian minority inside Israel.

Log onto: www.sunbula.org – Sunbula's home page – then click the Online Craft Producers icon to view catalog of gift ideas from the 20 different groups.

Women's Bean Project

Since 1989, the Women's Bean Project, a nonprofit business, has helped women break the cycle of chronic poverty and unemployment by teaching workplace competencies within the context of two active businesses: production and sales (wholesale and retail) of a wide variety of signature soup and gourmet food mixes and a catering service. Our goal is to assist women living in poverty to stabilize their lives, improve their self-esteem and ultimately move toward long-term employment and self-sufficiency.

Log onto: www.womensbeanproject.com then click online store on left

"Unidas Para Vivir Mejor" (UPAVIM) United To Live Better)

UPAVIM is a non-profit women's cooperative in Guatemala City dedicated to the sale of Fair Trade crafts. All profits from UPAVIM's crafts sales go toward the empowerment of women community service programs.

Log onto: www.upavimcrafts.org/ - UPAVIM homepage

Mayan Hands (Guatemala)

Mayan Hands is a small fair trade organization, founded in 1989, which works with more than 200 women organized in 12 cooperative groups. These talented weavers produce beautiful, high quality textiles which Mayan Hands is proud to market. Earning a fair return for their work empowers the weavers and allows them to feed their families, send their children to school and harbor hopes for a better future.

Log onto: <http://shop.mayanhands.org>

The vision of Rahab's Rope is to see lives transformed by God's love in action, to reveal His love in a way they can see, understand and respond to in faith. The women must first be rescued from human trafficking then provided with treatment for physical and emotional needs. They need to be taught that they have value and nurtured in love and faith. And finally to help women rebuild their lives by providing financial and vocational skills; job placement and funding for micro-business start-ups and to re-enter their communities and one by one, to see each one reach one.

Log onto: <http://www.rahabsrope.org>

Zatoun is a volunteer-run, non-profit NGO which brings Fair

Trade extra virgin olive oil from Palestine and other traditional and symbolic items such as za'atar herb mix, lovely soaps and small embroidered accessories. This is a tangible way to help support the livelihoods of Palestinian families. It also serves to connect Americans at a personal and human level with an issue that threatens world peace and to an issue where individuals often feel powerless and hopeless. Zatoun engages people and helps create networks of awareness and action. As the Chilean poet Pablo Neruda wrote - Action is the Mother of Hope! Contact: Robert Massoud || 866.294.9729

Or order online by logging onto: <http://zatoun.com>

Partners for Just Trade

Partners for Just Trade is a non-profit, faith-based organization that builds partnerships between producers living in extreme poverty in Peru and consumers in North America. We address root causes of poverty through Fair Trade sales, education, solidarity, and a commitment to trade justice.

Log onto: www.partnersforjusttrade.org/ and click shop now.

Zuni Gourmet Peanuts (United States)

an enterprise of Presbyterian Homes and Family Services Inc. Zuni Presbyterian Homes in Virginia is a residential community ministry providing nurture, healing and encouragement for adults with mental retardation who may otherwise be homeless or hopeless. The Zuni Peanut Sheltered Workshop promotes independence and self-reliance while providing employment to residents.

Log onto www.zunipeanuts.org: and click shop now.